

Inquiry in the Eternal Tourist Trap-for Mr. Saturn

(curtains lower)

The money has been dropped, diamonds are dear, yes?

The deserts have brought heat, while bridges cross blue

1. It's all in your head

2. It's all for you (out of line again)

The neon is bright, however, if moons come alive, shops go dark

The cohorts are by my side, records on the floor

The steps are alive, I am in a green trance

Could places be passed?

Can tunnels be mapped?

If the mice are aware and geodes are below will chasms still cut deep?

Please repeat: "If all is well and all is fine, we soon shall sink in gold and wine
